BROOKLYN ALL A-JINGLE.

President Wilson Causes McCarren Park Christmas Tree to Bloom.

Brooklyn donned her jingle harness oright and early yesterday, for Christmas in her bones. And it was the same good Christmas, war notwithstanding. only more of it. There were Christmas trees in plenty, not counting those in homes; Christmas trees of the municipal variety in public parks which bloomed with colored electric lights. One of these flowered out in McCarren Park at the distant touch of President Woodrow Wilson.

CHIMMIE AND HIS PALS SEE TOUGH CLUB'S SANTA

The Equitable Building stands for business expansion

The Equitable Building itself ushers in a new era in business structures—it is the high water mark in constructional efficiency—at once the biggest in size, and destined to be the greatest in service.

It stands for business expansion, and is itself a typical example of such expansion, making the boldest and the biggest bid for business ever made by any building on earth.

It is a building to expand in, and one which will contribute to your expansion.

Leases now being made from May 1, 1915. The building, however, is due to be completed 2 or 3 months ahead of that date.
